

Services

Help co-sponsor or host opportunities to promote and support the Micronesian cultures and languages

Trainings for educators and service providers on culturally-responsive ways to support the Micronesian community.

Engage in community outreach efforts to the Micronesian and the larger Hawaii community to help inform, educate, and train them on matters that support everyone's success.

Facilitate or collaborate on research studies to document the experiences of Micronesians in Hawai'i.

Partnerships with schools, social service providers, faith leaders, and others of goodwill to enable greater self-reliance based on Micronesian skills and cultural strengths.

Access to health care and translation services.

Contact Us

PO Box 5451
Hilo, HI 96720

Visit www.mu-bi.org to learn more about us.

David M. Ueda
(808) 430-9621
david@mu-bi.org

Tulpe Day
(808) 333- 1571
tulpe@mu-bi.org

Neilynn Domnick
(808) 229- 6614
neilynn@mu-bi.org

MICRONESIANS UNITED-Big Island

”

"We can't control the wind, but we can adjust our sail."

Our Mission & Values

Micronesians United Big – Island (MU-BI) is a Hilo-based 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that was formed in 2004-2005 to serve as a cultural bridge between Micronesians and the larger Big Island community.

To empower the local Pacific Islanders from the region of Micronesia for greater self-reliance, cultural pride, and to serve as a bridge to educate the larger community about the respective cultures, and our mutual rights and responsibilities.

MU-BI's most recent visit to Hilo Intermediate School.

Micronesians United - Big Island

SUPPORTING A FULLER LIFE FOR MICRONESIANS LIVING IN HAWAI'I

MU-BI

Operates with an all-volunteer elected Board of Directors who are all Micronesians and most of the Micronesian Groups are represented on the Board. The Board receives additional advice and support from non-voting supporting members from the larger community.

